Kyra 514

Collection: Foundation
Former name: Plati 514

Wall basin or Above counter basin, rectangular

The square lines of this basin create a modern architectural look. The narrow design is perfect for compact spaces.

All sides are glazed and there are blind fixing holes on each long side, designed to simplify wallmount installation.

All sides of the basin are glazed. The basin can be positioned with the tap platform on the right or left.

The overflow is located opposite the tap platform.

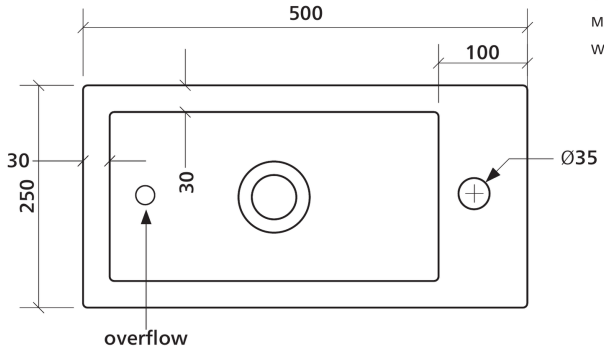

There are blind fixing holes on each long side for wallmount installation.
